

The Sociable.

A sociable was held last night at the M. E. church under the auspices of the ladies aid society. A large number, composed mostly of young people, met at the church and enjoyed themselves by singing, playing and chatting. At the proper time refreshments were served. All seemed to enjoy this part of the programme immensely. The contributions of the evening amounted to $26.45. This is very encouraging to those who had the matter in charge, as it indicates a liberal spirit on the part of the people. These sociables, we understand are to be held every two weeks, and it is hoped the young folks will turn out and help make them all as great a success as this one was.

The following named persons registered at the Grand View Hotel to-day: J. W. Pritchard, Cherryvale, Kansas; W. H. Belloumy, Howard, Kansas; R. B. Clark, Leadville; Thos. Harwood, Socorro; Mrs. Brinard, Kansas City; W. E. Kelly, Cincinnati, Ohio.

1 Catholic Chapel in East Las Vegas.

A petition signed by a great many of the East town people and Railroad employees to establish and build a chapel, in East Las Vegas, has been favorably considered by the Parish Priest, of Las Vegas, and the application made to the Archbishop for the permission, which undoubtedly will be granted. The chapel will be under the jurisdiction of the Parish Priest, Father Coudert, and services will be held therein according to circumstances.

Letter List.

The following is a list of the letters remaining in the post office at Las Vegas for the week ending October 5th. All persons calling for letters will please say "advertised."

Arellanes, M. M. Montoya, J. M. Morey, Mrs. C. P. Montoya, G. M. McLean, Mrs. L. E. Price, J. W. Reynolds, Mrs. G. A. 2 Romero, Francisco Rosch, Bernhard Sanchez, Rito Sandoval, Peter Sornberger, Chas. Smith, J. E. Tafolla, Romana Tyner, S. C. Thomas Henry Valdez, Lupera Morgan, Columbus Webb, G. T. F. CHAPMAN, P. M.

There are too many revolvers carried in Vegas. It is in almost every case a useless habit. As useless as it would be to carry a weapon in Chicago or New York. There is very little disorder and personal encounter is almost unknown. A man should have a mind cool enough to conduct himself peaceably and decently so that violence may not be resorted to. There is a man in our midst, in the civil walks of life, who so far as we know has no enemies and who carries a revolver and bowie-knife everywhere he goes. To dinner, to the post-office, to the depot and to church, (he sometimes goes to the latter place). He probably is of the chivalrous kind and hopes some day to have a successful encounter with the man he can get the better of.

A Mexican got drunk night before last and went to his mother-in-law's house, broke the doors down and beat the woman furiously. His object was to commit rape. He was arrested and tried before Justice Morrison yesterday and found guilty of the offense charged, and put under $500 bonds to appear at the next term of court, but in default of bondsmen he was put in jail, there to await trial. The woman is in a bad condition as the injuries were severe, and she is near 60 years of age.

San't Jaffe, of Jaffe Bros., the Pioneer merchants of Colorado and New Mexico, is expected to arrive at Trinidad this morning with his family. Mr. J. and family have been in Europe spending the summer among their families and friends. Their many friends in Trinidad will be glad to have them return. Mr. H. N. Jaffe and family, of this city, will go to Trinidad in a few days to attend the large reception which their Trinidad friends are tendering the long absent travelers.

Mrs. J. Gist and daughter, Miss Ella, will start for Alamosa, Colorado, on to-day's train. Mr. Gist has gone into the drug business at that point. The people of Las Vegas will miss them, and in the absence of Miss Ella, society will lose one of its most attractive members. Their property here is not sold and it is hoped that they will return at some future time.

Whenever a man is seen coming with a big sheet of fools cap in his hand, the boys begin to scatter. Petitions are getting so numerous now-a-days. We shall insist on knowing what we sign and not do as some who append their John Hancock to what they know not, as was noticed in a recent case.

B. Stoops, of the Western Meat Market, makes a specialty of filling railroad orders for meat. He will also fill orders for any other class of provisions.

GAZETILLA.

Personal And General Gathered From all Quarters of the City and Vicinity.

T. B. Catron, Esq., went through on yesterday's train for Santa Fe.

Johnny Roberts goes to pastures green and will corral himself first at Santa Fe.

Mr. Chas Horne returned on yesterday's train from Socorro.

Travel is light now. People in the states are preparing for winter.

A. J. Crawford sold a bunch of grapes yesterday that weighed five pounds.

Ward & Tamme will commence putting the roof on their new business house to-day.

McGaire is putting in a solid stone foundation for the new store of T. Tomero & Son.

Sales of real estate were lively yesterday. C. R. Browning sold five lots in East Las Vegas.

Antonio Baca and his brother-in-law, Andres Sena, came up on yesterday's train from the south.

Look well to your chimneys and flues before you start fires where there have been none of late.

C. M. Ball and H. W. Hodge, of Denver, and R. Dunn, of Kincon, are registered at the Sumner Hotel.

If you want a nice whirl, get one of Mendenhall & Co's fine teams just brought out from Kansas City.

Payne & Bartlett have purchased the lots where Rupe & Castle's salesroom stood. They will build at once.

The cornice for the new bank arrived yesterday and will be put up at once. It has been on the road a long time.

Mr. T. W. Garrard will go to his sheep ranch to-day. He will now shear and dip and prepare the flocks for winter.

O. L. Houghton has 250 more stoves on the road. Houghton is doing a fine business and he proposes to continue to enlarge it.

Devotees of the tender music will discover a missing line from the poem (?) on our third page. Fill it out to suit yourself.

Duncan went down the road again yesterday with a lot of mules. He says trade has been very good in this line down below.

Mr. B. Stoops expects to start for the Rio Grande Valley to-day, for the purpose of looking after his beef shipping interests in that region.

John Dougher and wife, Albuquerque; Wm. Pinkerton, Wagon Mound; Mat. D. Coursey, Eagle Mill; registered at the National Hotel.

Miss Belle Cowan, sister of Mrs. J. Reynolds, returned on yesterday's train. She has been visiting friends and relatives in Missouri since last spring.

We dropped into the room of one of the economical boys last night and found him in the capacity of a seamstress,—making a couple of pillow slips.

The train from the west came in late yesterday. A burning bridge was the reason and after the train passed over, it was stopped and the fire extinguished.

Mrs. S. S. Mendenhall and children left on yesterday's train for a visit to the home of her parents in Bethany, Missouri. She will be gone several months.

Chas. J. Quitel, Albuquerque; C. P. LaMarr, "oughkeeper, N. Y.; Thos. Case and wife, Kansas City; H. R. Taslow, wife and children; are registered at the St. Nicholas.

At an adjourned meeting of the Quarterly Conference, held at the Methodist church last evening, the salary of the minister for the ensuing year was fixed at $1,100.

MARRIED.—Tuesday evening, Oct. 5th, 1880, at the residence of Rev. Mr. Eastman, L. H. Maxwell, of Las Vegas, N. M., to Hattie Laura White, of Richmond, Indiana. No cards.

J. Campbell, the indefatigable surveyor has been busy for some time in laying off an extensive addition to Las Vegas for Messrs. Dold and Mills.

The school house is already overcrowded with pupils, and it will behoove the public to provide larger and better quarters at an early date. Miss Wood has 40 pupils in her room alone and still there are applications for admission.

We have received a most exquisite executed invitation to the first entertainment to be given by the Montezuma Club at the Grand View Hotel next Friday night. The boys begin the season in good season and will probably season it all through, with seasonable fun.

Mr. Barnett came up from the Nogals yesterday and brought some fine specimens of ore from the Great Easter, the Bullet, the Materia Medica and other lodes, which he has placed on exhibition at Mills & Hadley's. Several specimens show free gold.

Maj. Iaman, Capt. Whitmore and Col. Thos. Case and wife, of Kansas City, went down to the Old Pecos Church yesterday. Col. Case is postmaster of Kansas City, and is also editor of the Kansas City Review of Science and Industry.

TOPEKA is to have a street railway as soon as it can be built.
